HITS GRAHAM CASE

UPHOLDING OF CONSOLIDATION LAW AFFECTS LOCAL SUIT.

TO GIVE DECISION SOON

Circuit Judge Ellison Withholds Verdict Until Court Convenes, December 7—Other Points Involved.

The upholding by the state supreme court this week of the law passed at the last legislative session giving every rural school district a high school and permitting district consolidation for this purpose, probably will result in a dismissal of the suit now pending in the circuit court here relative to the Graham school consolidation. If the suit is not dismissed then it probably will affect the decision of the court in such way as to defeat the purpose of the suit.

Judge William C. Ellison said this morning that the verdict this week of the state's highest tribunal in all probability would affect his decision in the case. Briefs have been submitted by counsel to both sides of the suit, and the whole now rests with Judge Ellison. He announced this morning that he would hand down his decision when the circuit court reconvenes here Monday morning, December 7.

Await Court's Decision.

The case was heard by Judge Ellison a short time ago, when the written briefs were called for. His decision next month probably will determine for all time the fate of the first and only school consolidation in Nodaway county. That Judge Ellison cannot very well give a decision otherwise than favorable to the defendants is the opinion of local attorneys and County Superintendent W. M. Oakerson. Whether, however, there may be some other technical points involved which would place the suit out of the plane of the supreme court's verdict is now questioned.

Of course, the question of validity of the new state law was the principal point raised, but there also was declared by plaintiff's counsel that errors in the election also caused the consolidation to be illegal. One of these points, raised by Fred Harvey, counsel for the state, was that the county clerk has not been officially notified of the election result.

Not Sufficient Notice, Plea.

Another point involved was whether the county school superintendent had given sufficient notice of the consolidation election. The plaintiff's counsel declared he had not distributed plats of the election sufficiently.

There was one point involved in the case submitted to the supreme court which does not concern the Graham case, that being the matter of voting bonds, following the consolidation, for school improvements. As the Graham school building was large enough, no effort was made to improve the building, because of the added student enrollment occasioned by the consolidation.

The election was held March 1, 1914. It resulted in the consolidation of the school districts of Graham, Hayzlett, Stark, Lyle and Hickory Grove. A new directorate to succeed the board of directors of the various districts then was chosen.

Increased Taxes Caused Fight.

It consisted of Everett L. Morgan, Frank Lyle, Stoden F. Hayzlett, Michael Kill, Clarence Leeper and John Kennedy, the defendants in the present suit brought by the state.

Much of the complaint of taxpayers in the five districts opposed the consolidation because of the resulting increase in taxes, it being a levy of $1 on each $100 for incidental and teachers' expenses and 25 cents on the $100 for building and improvements. No bonds, however, were voted.

It was intended to establish a rural high school in the Graham building, to which all persons above the eighth grade within the five consolidated districts could attend. Those beneath the ninth grade would continue at the respective district schools.

Similar attempts to consolidate districts at Harmony, east of Arkoe and at Pickering were defeated.

Returns to Wyoming.

Mrs. Mel Snively of Sheridan, Wyo., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wendle, and her sister, Mrs. Herbert Wamsley, and family of Arkoe, left this morning for her home. Mrs. Snively has been visiting at Arkoe the past three months. She came to accompany her daughter, Ruth, who entered the Illinois Women's college at Jacksonville, Ill., in September.

BID MINISTER FAREWELL

Hold Fellowship Service at First Methodist Church Sunday Morning.

A farewell fellowship meeting is to be held at the First Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in honor of the Rev. C. H. John, who leaves Maryville next week to make his home at Siloam Springs, Ark.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Mr. John, who will take for the subject of his discourse "The Divine Kinship — Its Responsibilities and Privileges." The pastor, Rev. G. S. Cox, will assist at the service, and specially prepared music will be given.

The Rev. Mr. John has made his home in Maryville for the past ten years. He was a member of the Missouri conference, and while he has taken no resident pastorate during this time, he has been more active and has perhaps done more than any other pastor in the northwest district to build new churches, to revive old ones, and to lend evangelistic help. Through his efforts the churches at Hopkins, Maitland and Bolckow have been built, and several of the rural churches in Nodaway county have been reconstructed and reorganized into new activities.

THE REV. C. H. JOHN.

During this time Mr. John has also been secretary of the County Anti-Saloon League and has given a personal and active support to all movements for moral reform. He has been a contributor to the various church publications.

At the evening hour of service the Rev. Mr. Cox will preach a sermon of especial import to young women on the subject "A Young Woman's Choice." At both morning and evening services special Thanksgiving music will be given. At the morning hour the choir will sing Gounod's "Praise Ye the Father," and a solo will be given by the Rev. Mr. Cox.

INJURED MAN IMPROVING.

Friends Circulate Petition to Aid Young Farmer Hurt in Shredder.

The condition of William Clutz, the young farmer living northwest of this city who had his arm torn off at the elbow yesterday in a corn shredder, was much better today.

The accident happened on the farm of Charles Suttle, six miles southeast of Burlington Junction, where Clutz was employed. A petition is being circulated today among the friends of the young man to raise money to pay for medical attention. Clutz is married. He rents a small farm.

WOULD IMPROVE CREDIT SYSTEM.

Commercial Club Secretary Investigates Rating Method Used at Columbia.

W. R. Jackson, secretary of the Commercial club, returned this morning from Columbia, where he and C. W. Yehle of the Alderman-Yehle Dry Goods company, went Wednesday to investigate an improved credit rating system the merchants there use. It is planned by the Commercial club directorate to recommend some improved credit rating system for the business men of this city.

Various systems are being examined with the desire to establish in Maryville a system that will be, so far as possible, entirely satisfactory to all lines of business in the city. The present method used here is considered out of date in many ways.

Mr. Yehle went to St. Louis from Columbia, where he will buy goods for the local house. He expects to return tomorrow.

Home from Kansas City.

Miss Katherine Stewart of Arkoe has returned from a three weeks visit with relatives in Kansas City.

CLOSE FOR 9 DAYS

NORMAL STUDENTS GET VACATION, BEGINNING THIS AFTERNOON

FACULTY SEES DISTRICT

State School Will Be Closed Until November 30, to Permit Visitation of Northwest Missouri.

Beginning this afternoon, the State Normal school will be closed to students until Monday morning, November 30—nine whole days—to permit the faculty to make its annual visit over the normal school district of northwest Missouri. This will mean that while the 250 state school students are, in most cases, at home, and enjoying a Thanksgiving week all to themselves, their instructors will be hieing over the district on a "get-acquainted" trip.

The object of these visits, primarily, according to Ira Richardson, president of the Normal school, is to enable the faculty members to learn the actual conditions in the district, so the Normal can give better training to would-be teachers.

Another object, and which is believed to be almost as important, is to enable the faculty to determine just what benefit the Normal instruction has been to former students, and whether it has improved their work and activities as a school should.

The visitation of the district by the faculty, also is a known benefit to the school in advertising its advantages and in acquainting the persons living within the boundaries of this district, just how important an institution the one here really is. While no doubt everyone within the district knows vaguely at least what the Normal is doing, few have a true perception, it is believed, of the advance it is making along the various lines.

The new and enlarged extension, correspondence and reading circle work which the Normal this year is offering also will be boosted and their objects explained to those interested in the district by the faculty visitors.

The faculty members will be apportioned over the district of nineteen counties as follows:

T. H. Cook, Andrew county; Miss Mary M. Hughes, Atchison; Miss Hettie M. Anthony and Miss LaRue Kemp, Buchanan; C. E. Wells, Caldwell; R. A. Kinnaird, Carroll; H. P. Swinehart, Clay; C. A. Hawkins, Clinton; Walter Hanson, Daviess; Harry A. Miller, DeKalb; M. W. Wilson, Gentry; G. H. Colbert, Grundy; Miss Beatrix Winn, Harrison; J. E. Cameron, Holt; H. A. Foster, Livingston; A. J. Cauffield, Mercer; Miss Fannie Hope and Miss Carrie Hopkins, Nodaway; M. G. Neale, Platte; W. A. Rickenbrode, Ray; Miss Katherine Helwig, Worth. Miss Harriett Day will visit the schools of St. Joseph, Cameron and Liberty to see what is being done in the teaching of art.

Miss Beulah Bruner and Miss Mildred Miller will visit the Francis Parker school, Chicago normal school and other schools in Chicago during the nine days vacation.

Most of the faculty members will leave next Monday for the annual county visits.

ADD $17 TO BELGIAN FUND

Campaign Nets Little Past Day—School Offering in Tomorrow.

The local campaign for a Belgian relief fund netted but a $17 increase from yesterday afternoon to 2 o'clock this afternoon, according to Paul Sisson, director. This brings the total now up to $565.90, with approximately $130 yet to raise if an entire car of flour is shipped to the war stricken country.

The offering of Normal and public school students of Maryville probably will be announced tomorrow. The school campaign closes this evening. They will swell the total considerably, it is believed. A few contributions from individuals, churches and schools outside of Maryville also are expected tomorrow.

TO GIVE THANKS

CHURCH WILL OBSERVE THANKSGIVING WITH SPECIAL PROGRAMS

HOLD UNION SERVICES

Hale to Preach Sermon at First Presbyterian Church—Christians to Remember Old Folks.

Two specially arranged services will mark the Thanksgiving season in Maryville this year. One will be a union service of all the Protestant churches to be held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning in the First Presbyterian church and the other will be given at 11 o'clock Sunday morning in the First Christian church.

The elderly folks of the First Christian congregation are to be especially remembered at the Thanksgiving service. Automobiles have been secured to convey them to the church. Forty auto owners have offered their cars and Mayor U. S. Wright has charge of the work of sending the cars out on the assembling rounds. Any one wanting a car is asked to notify either Mr. Wright or the church pastor, the Rev. Robert L. Finch.

At 11 o'clock a Thanksgiving sermon will be preached by the pastor. The choir, under the direction of Dr. D. J. Thomas, will sing "Come, Said Jesus' Sacred Voice," and Mrs. F. P. Robinson will sing the solo "In My Father's House Are Many Mansions."

At the Sunday school hour the program will include a song by the primary department; a vocal duet by Mrs. Harry Todd and Mrs. Robert L. Finch, with violin obligato by Lee Griffith; a solo, "The Day is Ended," by Doris Goforth, and a reading by Miss Thella Hogue.

The evening service will be an evangelistic one, and in addition to other special features the choir will sing "The Glory of God." The Christian Endeavor society has undertaken the work of decorating the church symbolic of Thanksgiving. The day is also the occasion of the annual church gift to home missions.

At the union service Thanksgiving morning the sermon will be preached by the Rev. Lewis M. Hale, pastor of the First Baptist church. A musical program will also be given. The Ministerial Alliance requested the Rev. C. H. John, who expects to leave for Arkansas to reside, to make the Thanksgiving address, but as his plans were made to leave earlier than that day, he could not do so.

WOULD CREATE RESERVE ARMY.

Organization Suggests Force of Million Men to Guard Country.

A move to strengthen the national defense with a veteran reserve army was advanced by a resolution adopted by the Army of the Philippines, which adjourned its fourteenth annual convention in Chicago this week.

The veteran reserve force, as contemplated by the resolution, would make approximately 1,000,000 trained men available to the government in the event of war. It would include officers and enlisted men, within the military age limit, who have had military service in the United States army, navy, marine corps, United States volunteers, national guard and American citizens with experience in any foreign army.

The plan for the veteran reserve provides that it should be a national organization with a commander-in-chief and all the other officers and forms of the present military organization.

To Attend Foot Ball Game.

Prof. M. G. Neale, Prof. R. A. Kinnaird and Prof. C. A. Hawkins of the State Normal school faculty, expect to leave this afternoon for Lawrence, Kan., where tomorrow they will attend the annual Thanksgiving game of the football teams of the University of Missouri and of the University of Kansas. All are M. U. rooters. They intend to return in time for beginning the annual Normal visit over the district Monday morning.

Walter S. Scott Becomes General Insurance Agent After Long Service

George B. Mr. Scott is well known to Maryville people and lived here some 30 years ago. He has been a frequent visitor here. He is one of the best known fire insurance men in the United States.

Mr. Scott is succeeded as state agent by John H. Walsh of Kansas City. Like Mr. Scott, he has a state wide acquaintance. Mr. Walsh held the position of first assistant secretary of the treasury under Secretary Manning during Cleveland's first administration. Jake K. Lesch is still the state farm agent.

PLAN FARM COURSE

NORMAL COMMITTEE ARRANGES PROGRAM FOR INSTITUTE.

SIX LECTURES DAILY

Ten "Imported" Agricultural Experts Already Secured for Five Days Session, December 8-12.

A tentative program for the five days farm and home institute to be held by the State Normal school here from December 8 to 12 inclusive has been arranged by the committee in charge. The agricultural, poultry, dairy and animal husbandry experts from points outside of this county already have been engaged for the course of farm instruction and more are contemplated. A number of prominent farmers, stockmen, dairymen and poultry raisers of Nodaway county and the normal district also will lecture to the farm course attendants.

It is believed the institute this year will attract farmers and their wives for miles around. Unlike on previous occasions, the women will be especially appealed to in the institute. Instructors in domestic science and home economics may be engaged to give lectures and demonstrations in cooking, sewing and household work for the benefit of the farmers' wives and other women who attend the institute here next month.

The program will include two topics each morning, three each afternoon and a night session. All, except the night sessions, will be held in the auditorium of the Normal building. The night sessions will be held downtown, probably in the Empire theater. One of the night sessions will include a motion picture lecture on poultry raising by T. E. Quisenberry of Mountain Grove, director of the Missouri state poultry experiment station. It probably will be on Friday night, December 11.

The tentative program, subject to change and alteration as additional foreign and local talent is obtained, follows:

December 8—W. A. Cochel, Manhattan, Kan., of the Kansas State Agricultural college; Rex Beresford, Des Moines, Ia., secretary Iowa Beef Producers' association; A. N. Lindsey, Clinton, secretary Federation of Missouri Commercial clubs.

December 9—W. A. Cochel, Rex Beresford, A. N. Lindsey, Joseph Wing, Mechanicsburg, O., alfalfa expert.

December 10—F. B. Mumford, Columbia, dean Missouri state college of agriculture; E. G. Bennett, Carthage, state dairy commissioner; T. E. Quisenberry, Mountain Grove, secretary state poultry board.

December 11—D. F. Luckey, Columbia, state veterinarian; C. B. Hutchison, Columbia, member of faculty of state agricultural college; H. O. Allison, Columbia, member of faculty of state agricultural college.

December 12—D. F. Luckey, C. B. Hutchison, H. O. Allison.

Candidates File Expense Data.

Statements of campaign expenses were filed yesterday afternoon and this morning with County Clerk George W. Demott by the following candidates: George H. Westfall, circuit clerk-elect, $73.95; W. O. Garrett, defeated Republican candidate for presiding judge county court, $91.50, and John Campbell, defeated Democratic candidate for county judge of the north district, $39.50. Campbell had no pre-primary expenses.

The A. M. E. church will serve dinner and supper at the church on Thanksgiving day.

SINK GERMAN SHIP

WEATHER STOPS FIGHT

Cold Causes Lull Along Yser River—Say Kaiser Closes Russian Port of Libau.

London, Nov. 20.—The Hamburg-American liner Elbetana has been sunk by the British fleet in the Persian gulf, according to a dispatch received this morning by the Daily News. No details have been received concerning the naval engagement. The Elbetana was last reported as having arrived at Bussorap, Asiatic Turkey, early in August. The German liner was a vessel of about 5,000 tons displacement.

Paris, Nov. 20.—The continued cold, disagreeable weather is causing a temporary lull in the fighting along the Yser river battle line. The Germans' and allies' forces lay behind the trenches awaiting the return of more favorable weather.

Berlin, Nov. 20.—An official bulletin given out here by the war office today says that the German fleet has succeeded in partly closing the harbor of Libau, Russia, through the sinking of ships. It also has bombarded important military positions, according to the official bulletin.

STUDENTS STUDY JOURNALISM

Training School Class Takes Up Newspaper Work—"Green and White" Better.

The second number of the Green and White Courier, the new Normal biweekly paper, was issued yesterday. While the initial number was commendable in every way, the second issue far exceeds it, especially in arrangement of news and the handling of the articles that go into it. More advertising also is noticeable this week.

Particular attention is being paid by the editorial staff to general Normal school news, while the training school department had a page all to itself, in which the news was written by students of that department. The sixth grade of that department now is taking up the study of newspaper work. They first visited the job and newspaper plant of The Democrat-Forum, where a study of the various departments was made.

The class is studying not only news gathering but advertising and composition and press work as well.

Miss Allie Jean Fraser is teaching the class, which is composed of Lenny Cary, Mabel Raines, Bennett French, Elvin Munn, Neva Munn, Harold Roelofson, Willie Whelchel, Forrest Woodward, Eugene DeArmond, Annette Stiwalt, Russell Howard and Lewis Howard.

The Green and White Courier has this to say of the class work:

They are learning how the news is gathered, studying the composition of the articles, and determining how they themselves might get advertisements and news for the school paper, and how to write the news in the best possible style.

Three leading Missouri dailies are also being studied by the children, and as many Sunday papers will receive their attention. The work is grouped around three heads, machinery, printing and the kinds and sources of paper used for newspapers.

They are learning about the composition of printer's ink, how to collect news, the significance of newspaper titles, the circulation of newspapers, and are receiving training in arithmetic, language (both oral and written), geography, history and spelling, in connection with their problem of newspapers.

Lessons in geography are gained from their study of news gathered from the various countries of cables, and of the circulation of newspapers.

They also are learning how to spell and use such words as matrix, lead, type, advertisement, bamboo, jute, straw, fibre, papyrus, deckle, slug and editorial. The history of printing is also an interesting phase of the work for them.

REFUND HIGH RATE

BURLINGTON MUST RETURN EXCESS TRAFFIC CHARGES.

ENDS LONG LITIGATION

Fight Begun in 1905 Results in Victory for Missouri—May Make Claims Now.

M. A. Romjue, referee in the case of the state against the Burlington railroad, appointed by the circuit court of Macon county, has given notice that claims will be received now from persons who paid the Burlington either excess freight or passenger charges or both, while a federal injunction was in effect. That was between June 16, 1907 and July 12, 1913. Such claims should be filed however prior to January 7, 1915, with him at Macon, personally or by mail.

The claims must be presented on blanks furnished by Referee Romjue at Macon or Attorney General John T. Barker, at Jefferson City. No claims for excess freight or passenger charges will be received unless the transportation was entirely within this state.

Many Will Take Advantage.

It is believed thousands will take advantage of this opportunity to recover on the overcharges by the Burlington railroad within the six years the injunction was in force. The claims against many other of the various railroads operating in Missouri, all of which were in the injunction suit, now are being received, among them being the Wabash. Some cases are still pending in circuit courts of the state.

The history of the fight waged by the state against the railroads and their retaliation with injunctions, suits and counter-suits is a long but a rather interesting one. The fight virtually started in 1905, when the state legislature passed what was known as the maximum commodities freight law. On the day it should have become effective, June 16, 1905, the railroads were given a temporary restraining order by an Iowa jurist, which continued until 1907, when the maximum law was modified by the legislature. This made the restraining order useless.

State Finally Won.

On the day this new law should have gone into effect, June 16, 1907, the railroads jointly, got another restraining order from the same Iowa jurist of the federal courts. The same state legislature also passed what was known as the two-cent passenger law. The effectiveness of this also was held up in litigation until on March 8, 1909, a perpetual restraining order was issued prohibiting the enforcement of either the freight or passenger laws.

The cases were appealed to the United States supreme court by the state. On June 16, 1913, the highest tribunal reversed thirteen of the cases, and declared both laws valid and enforceable. This was a big victory for Missouri's legal department. Among the thirteen railroads which lost in the supreme court were the Wabash and the Burlington railroads. Five of the railroads operating in the state, among them being the Chicago Great Western were held not to be subject to the two state laws and were exempted.

Great Western Uneffected.

That is the reason passenger fare rates on the Burlington and the Wabash now are but two cents per mile while the Great Western may continue to charge as much as three cents a mile, and does. Its freight rates also may be higher than on either of the other two railroads operating thru Nodaway county.

Following the supreme court victory for the state, efforts were begun immediately to compel the railroads to refund excessive charges. This brought further litigation. Finally Judge McPherson of the federal court of Kansas City, held substantially as the state's legal department held, that: the railroads were liable to pay the overcharges collected by them while the federal injunctions were in force; that their liability bonds did not limit that liability; that claimants would be given the right to sue in any court of their choice, whether state or federal, for such overcharges.

Claims for all excess passenger fares may be made from the time the roads instituted the excess passenger charges—that is, charges over and above two cents per mile until the roads put into effect the two-cent tariff rate.

May Recover on Livestock.

The commodities for which excess freight charges may be recovered are only those commodities which are shipped in carload lots between stations wholly within the State of Missouri.

These commodities include, among others, carload lots of live stock, grain flour in lots of 50 barrels or more, lime in lots of 24 barrels or more, salt in lots of 60 barrels or more, and cement, water lime and stucco in lots of 24 barrels or more; also lumber, laths and shingles in carload lots, agricultural implements, furniture and wagons in carload lots, and carload lots of coal, brick, sand, stone, railroad ties and cordwood, and all heavy fourth class articles. Also carload lots of melons and of fruit and such other commodities as are specifically named in the sections affected.

COMMENDS NORMALITE'S WORK.

Miss Ethel Fray, Now of Lamar, is Lauded for School Spirit.

Miss Ethel Fray of Lamar, formerly a student of the State Normal school here, and now a teacher of the Oakton school of Barton county, has received considerable praise for her modern methods of rural school instruction and features. Her latest bouquet thrower is A. L. Mills, county clerk of Barton county, who recently paid a visit, on invitation, to the Oakton school.

In reference to a display of farm products which Miss Fray's pupils arranged, he had the following to say:

"The school house was absolutely full of apples, field corn, popcorn, radishes, pumpkins and all sorts of things that those kids had raised. There were pies and cakes and loaves of bread that the girls had baked and fruit that they had put up. I remember especially a pie, a cake and a loaf of bread that was baked by a little 8-year-old girl.

"They have a little garden, right there in the school yard, where they raise things. The teacher takes the pupils around to the barn yards of the farmers, and has them judge the stock. Perhaps once a week she gives the children a talk on agriculture. Then she has lecturers from the outside. But she doesn't go to Columbia to get them. She has men right here in the neighborhood make these talks.

"I just thought this solved the farm adviser problem, and may be it solved the question of keeping the boys and girls on the farm. It takes a pretty smart teacher to do all this, of course, but Miss Fray does it, and maybe you think those folks down there in that neighborhood don't swear by her."

GIVE EIGHTH CORN SHOW.

Whitesville Interstate Exhibition Attracts Growers from This County.

The eighth annual interstate corn show will be held in Whitesville, December 7 to 10 inclusive. The secretary, Len A. Saunders of Bolckow, is now arranging the premiums and preparing for one of the best exhibitions ever held there. An increased number of prizes are offered.

Several Nodaway county farmers are contemplating the exhibition of corn at the Whitesville show, among them being M. C. Thompson, near this city. He has been exhibiting corn at that show for the last five years, and always has carried off one or more prizes.

The four days' show will be featured December 9 with a banquet that night. Representatives from various farm papers each year attend the show and give considerable attention to the exhibits.

Pretty Cool.

"Perhaps it is best after all," remarked the rejected suitor as he lingered in the hall. "A man of twenty-five would soon tire of a wife who hovered around the thirty-two mark."

"Why, Mr. Ardent," said the woman in the case, "how very ungallant of you to dare to insinuate that I am thirty-two!"

"Well, perhaps you are not," he replied, "but it certainly struck me that you were somewhere near the freezing point."—London Mail.

Blind Ants.

It is reported by a famous entomologist that a species of white ant attacked the country home of an East Indian farmer, and in a short time are many of the sills and floors of the house. These ants, according to the entomologists, have no eyes, can live only in darkness, and their food is wood. The entomologist also said that in many respects they resemble bees.

Globe Trotting.

The record trip around the world up to date is held by J. H. Mears. Commissioned by a New York newspaper, Mears left New York July 2, 1913, and completed the trip of 21,066 miles in 31 days, 21 hours and 35 minutes. The best previous time on a similar trip was 39 days, 19 hours and 42 minutes, by Jaeger Schmidt, in 1911.—New York American.

Artificial Butter.

Margarine, the first artificial butter, was made at Poissy, in France, in 1889, for the first time. It was made from the fat of the kidneys and loins of cattle. Tallow, lard and olive and cottonseed oil are also used in the manufacture of various butterines. Cocoanut butter is largely used in northern Europe.

Fine Excuse.

Wife (at 7 a. m.)—Now deny your condition last evening! Here you are lying in bed with your hat and shoes on. Don't tell me you didn't come home the worse for drink! Husband—Not a bit, dear. You know I have lately taken to walking in my sleep, and I thought I'd go to bed prepared.—Illustrated Bits.

CONSTANCY.

Whatever is genuine in social relations endures despite of time, error, absence and destiny, and that which has no inherent vitality had better die at once. A great poet has truly declared that constancy is no virtue, but a fact.—Tuckerman.

The KITCHEN CABINET

The traveler owns the grateful sense
Of sweetness near, he knows not where
And pausing takes with forehead bare
The benediction of the air.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

There are some who find it necessary to cultivate a taste for eggplant, others like it at first taste. It looks so attractive in its natural state that even the prejudiced will be persuaded that it is good.

Peel the plant and cut in half-inch slices, set under a weight to remove some of the juice, then egg, bread and fry in hot fat until well done. Serve hot. This is one of the favorite ways of serving it and the one best liked.

A most satisfying apple-cake or coffee-cake may be made by taking three cupfuls of bread sponge which is light and foamy, add a quarter of a cupful of melted fat (butter is best), a quarter of a cupful of sugar, a well-beaten egg, all well mixed with a half cupful of milk and flour to make a dough soft, but not sticky. Set to rise, add a half cupful of raisins when kneading it for the flat loaf, cover with butter, slices of apple, sugar and cinnamon and bake when twice its bulk.

Cottage Pudding With Raisin Sauce.—Beat half a cupful of butter to a cream; add a cupful of sugar, add two yolks and one white, well beaten, then alternate one cupful of milk, with two cupfuls of flour sifted with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder; add a fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, beat well and pour into a shallow pan to bake a half hour. Serve cut in squares with Sultana Sauce.—Simmer a half cupful of raisins in a cupful of boiling water until tender, an hour will be none too long; add a level tablespoonful of cornstarch mixed with half a cupful of cold water and let cook ten minutes; add two tablespoonfuls of butter, a cupful of sugar and a teaspoonful of vanilla.

Fresh Fish Balls.—With a silver fork pick some remnants of cooked fish and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Pass through a vegetable ricer a few hot boiled potatoes, to these add a little fish stock or sauce or cream, also salt, pepper and beat as for mashed potatoes. To the fish add just enough of the hot potato to hold the fish together. Shape into balls, roll in crumbs and egg, then in fine crumbs, and fry in deep fat.

Small curs are not regarded when they grin,
But great men tremble when the lion roars.—Shakespeare.

Health is the result of a partnership between mind and body.

COMMON ERRORS IN EATING.

It is, indeed, a rare person who eats hygienically. Few know and fewer still live up to the knowledge acquired. Probably the most common error is eating too fast, another eating too much, and another not masticating the food well.

There is an old saying which goes like this: "Watch a man eat and you will know how he works." It is maintained by the fast eaters that as they do everything rapidly so all their functions work at the same rate. However this may be, it is essential that energetic chewing should continue until all the food has been well mixed with the saliva (the first digestive juice) and that the food should be so finely divided that the flavor has been well enjoyed.

Our prehistoric parents had good teeth. Mastication is good for the teeth, and they exercised them on good, coarse bone and muscle making foods.

The crusty, brown, hard bread is not so well liked or as popular as it should be. Bread which is soft and spongy and perfectly desirable bread is not as well chewed, is swallowed before the sweet flavor of the grain is discovered and which is vastly more important, before the saliva has had an opportunity to give its valuable aid to digestion.

Haste in eating usually goes with the evil of much drinking at meals. Food properly chewed will be moist enough to slip down without any difficulty. The old idea that nothing should be drunk at meals is not held at present. Water is needed, but should not be taken in unlimited amounts during eating.

Ice water has nothing to be said in its favor, as it chills the stomach and causes an extra amount of work to be put upon the stomach, as the temperature must be raised again to continue the process of digestion. Frozen desserts may be eaten so slowly that the stomach takes care of them without strain. Many people do not take enough water.

Pleasurable surprise in food and conversation with cheerful topics all act as a strong tonic on digestion.

Nellie Maxwell.

The Howards.

The Austrians are known to be the greatest "sticklers" for genealogy, many of the nobles tracing their descent back to almost the dawn of history. Even in Austria, however, it is generally admitted that the dukes of Norfolk represent the oldest family in the world. According to the most trustworthy authorities, the Howards are of Saxon origin, the name in those days being Hereward. As far back as 957 there are trustworthy records of the family.—London Globe.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" Can't Harm Tender Little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup company."

BURDETTE, FAMOUS HUMORIST, IS DEAD

Noted Author and Preacher Dies at His Home In Pasadena.

Pasadena, Cal., Nov. 20.—Dr. Robert J. Burdette, preacher, author and humorist, died at his home here. He had been ill for the greater part of two years, and for the last week had been in a state of coma.

Mr. Burdette began cultivating good humor obscurely in Peoria, Ill., forty years ago, when he spent part of his days at a desk on the Peoria Transcript "trying to think," as he himself once related, "of pleasant things to tell the folks when I went home at night." His audience of "folks" then was Carrie Garrett, the Peoria girl he had married a short time before, while she lay supposedly on her death bed, but who lived and, though an invalid for life, became immortalized by her husband as "Her Little Serene Happiness." It was she who encouraged him to sow his humor in wider fields. At her bedside Burdette became prolific with fun-making contributions to the Burlington (Ia.) Hawkeye, and through these he became famous.

The little invalid wife encouraged him, too, to try the lecture field.

"She kept me at it," said Burdette, "and in due time we had a lecture on our hands—'The Rise and Fall of the Moustache.' Burdett insisted on trying the lecture first in Keokuk—"for Keokuk hated Burlington"—and if he succeeded there he would know that it was good. Even Keokuk applauded. The whole United States later did the same. He became a sort of itinerant preacher. At sixty, ten years ago, Mr Burdette was called to the pastorate of the Temple Baptist church of Los Angeles.

FIVE-MINUTE CURE IF STOMACH IS BAD

When "Pape's Diapepsin" Reaches Stomach All Indigestion, Gas and Sourness Disappears.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Not So Short.

He was supposed to be a poor but otherwise honest young man, while she was admittedly a thing of beauty.

"Will you marry me?" he asked.

"No," she answered.

"You are very short," he muttered.

"Ditto," she replied. "That's why there is nothing doing in the matrimonial line."

"Oh, I don't know!" he sneered as he extracted an obese billbook from an inside pocket and displayed a number of $1,000 bills. "I'm not so short."

Whereupon the unwary maid tried to fall upon his neck, but he gracefully sidestepped, and she fell to the floor in a faint.—Chicago News.

JAMES TODD, Postmaster.

Here it is close to December and some men are still without new OVERCOATS; despite the lateness of the date we're still splendidly equipped.

It they want to dispatch this "unfinished business" quickly, we advise their coming direct to our store—they'll find more OVERCOATS, more styles, more patterns, more colors and greater values than any other clothing store in Maryville can show them. Its really interesting to note how we've departed from price tradition.

We have just received a new lot of Overcoats, closed out from an overstocked manufacturer, who needed the money, and just to stir things up a little we are going to sell these coats at $7.50 and $10.00 all sizes, all wool, nicely made and trimmed. Coats that will fit well, look well, wear well—durable cloth. You will be surprised to see Men's Overcoats at such prices.

We Have Others at $15, $18, $20, $22.50 and $25

Some Men use an Overcoat as though it were a mask, they hide their suits with it. For Men and Young Men who want to look "presentable" through and through, were commend our huge display of suits. A special purchase enables us to offer some extra values in Men's Suits at $10

Others at $15, $18, $20, $22.50 and $25.00

Raincoats, Balmacaans, Fur Overcoats, Mackinaws, Sweater Coats, Heavy Underwear for Men and Boys, Winter Caps, Shoes and Overshoes— Everything you want to make you comfortable for winter wear.

The prices are just a little lower, the qualities just a little higher than you will find elsewhere.

LAND QUESTION CAUSE OF REVOLTS

Lind Gives His Views on Situation In Mexico.

MUST OWN THEIR OWN FARMS

Says Whole Nation Is Homeless and Fighting Will Never Cease While Workers Are In Present Dispossessed Condition.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—In an address here before the Industrial club, John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico during the Huerta administration, declared that the land question was the cause of the revolution in Mexico and that fighting there would never cease until the workers were able to own their own farms.

Mr. Lind pleaded for kindly feelings toward Mexico, asserting that Mexican distrust of the United States was vanishing and that thereafter the Mexicans would be our steadfast friends forever.

"I felt while in Mexico, and I feel now, that permanent peace in Mexico on the basis of the social and economic conditions which has existed in the past is an impossibility."

Early in his address Mr. Lind declared that while in Mexico he became convinced that the so called revolution in which virtually all of northern Mexico was aligned against Huerta was "only in a slight degree political;" that the compelling force actuating the majority of the people was "economic and social, rather than political in any partisan sense."

Forcible Transfer of Land.

Touching the agrarian condition, Mr. Lind sketched the forcible transfer of the land from the original possessors to the Spanish conquerors. "As a whole a nation was made homeless," he said, "and has so continued to this day. This is and will be the cause of revolutions in Mexico until the question is settled."

Nominal freedom, he declared, was accorded the peons, but they were and are poorly paid and practically compelled to remain in the service of the great landowners. Laws forbidding an employee to leave his service while in debt have aided in keeping the workers in subjection.

In the fact that the Mexican railroads, formerly operated by Americans, are now in the hands of native Mexicans, from division superintendents to section men, Mr. Lind saw hope for advancement of the country.

Lind Is Hopeful.

In view of that situation he said:

"I asked myself and I asked some of the critics of President Wilson's policy whether it was not within the range of probability that a people who, within a brief generation, had responded with such facility to the new social and economic environment, might make equivalent progress in the field of politics and government if afforded a fair chance. I am hopeful, aye, confident, that they will."

FLOCK TO VILLA'S STANDARD

Northern Chief Gathers Carranza Followers to His Columns.

Washington, Nov. 20.—General Villa's march on Mexico City continues unobstructed, according to official telegrams from American consular agents accompanying them. Two thousand Carranza troops changed their allegiance to Villa at Leon, the dispatches said, and garrisons all along the line are incorporating themselves in the Villa columns.

That Villa will reach Mexico City without difficulty is the opinion of the American agents, who say his army is well equipped and moving with scientific precision.

From Carranza sources, however, it is stated that Villa will have to clash in a few days with the troops of Generals Obregon and Gonzalez, south of Irapuato and near Queretaro.

General Obregon issued a manifesto to the nation, calling upon all citizens to unite against General Villa, whom he denominated as "a traitor and criminal, whose whole purpose is to sacrifice the country on the altar of personal ambition."

Four Priests Reported Executed.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 20.—A military bulletin from Guadalajara received priests had been executed by order of General Joachim Amara, military gov here says that four Roman Cathoic ernor in the state of Michoacan. It was declared that the clericals had headed an uprising. Several similar uprisings of the people against alleged confiscation and desecration of church property have been reported from several points in southwestern Mexico.

Turks Win Naval Battle.

Berlin, Nov. 20.—A Turkish fleet has engaged a Russian squadron composed of two battleships and five cruisers off Sebastopol, according to an official report reaching Berlin from Constantinople. One of the Russian battleships was seriously damaged, and the other vesse's, with the Turkish ships in pursuit, fled to Sebastopol.

British War Loan Covered.

London, Nov. 20.—England's new war loan, the largest in history, already has been covered.

Generous.

"When I met my pretty cousin at the train I was in doubt whether I should kiss her."

"Well, what did you do?"

"I gave her the benefit of the doubt."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

A Healthy Heart.

Albert Albu, Germany's greatest authority on nutrition and on the hygiene of sport, says: "A healthy heart, after strong but not excessive exertion, ought to return to its normal number of beats within fifteen minutes after the exercise ends. If it takes much longer then overexertion may be assumed."

Lucky Quip.

When Thomas was preparing one of his first almanacs a man who was engaged upon the work with him asked what he should say about the weather opposite a certain week in July. Thomas humorously or peevishly replied, "Thunder, hail and snow." It was so put down and printed, and it so happened that it did thunder, hail and snow at the very time. This fortunate prediction raised the almanac maker in the estimation of many and made his almanac the most popular of its day in this country.

Modest Dan Hayes.

An old playbill of the Kilkenny Theater Royal for May 14, 1793, was a few years ago reprinted in the Western (England) Mail, and the following is an extract from it:

"The tragedy of 'Hamlet,' originally written and composed by the celebrated Dan Hayes of Limerick and inserted in Shakespeare's works."

The playbill concludes with the interesting notice that "no person whatsoever will be admitted into the boxes without shoes or stockings." It is probable that this claimant to the honor of the authorship of "Hamlet" is not so well known as his astounding claim might warrant.

TO ASK NEW BANW LAWS.

Missouri Financiers Outline Ideas for Next Legislature.

Changes in the Missouri banking laws that will be asked at the approaching session of the Missouri legislature by a commission of the Missouri Bankers' association were outlined at a meeting of bankers in St. Louis this week by Breckenridge Jones, president of a St. Louis trust company. The proposed laws include:

A further restriction as to loans made to officers and directors of state bank and trust companies.

Prohibition of one financial institution owning more than 10 or 15 per cent of the stock of another financial institution.

Trust companies to be under the same regulations as to reserves and loans that apply to state banks.

Breaking a Bad Habit.

A customer had come to purchase a beef roast. Now, it seems that Bill used to have a most annoying habit (to the patrons of bearing down with a heavy hand upon the scales. This high cost of living thing and all that were bad enough in all conscience, thought some of his patrons, but one of them finally broke Bill of this trick.

As was stated, the customer was buying a beef roast, and Bill slyly was helping out the work of the scales with one pudgy fist when before a shopful of people the buyer said:

"Take your hand off that scale, Bill. I'm buying beef, not pork."

Since then no one has had to chide Bill for a similar act.—Exchange.

INSPECTS IMPORTED AZALEAS

University Expert Finds Engelmann Plants Are Free From Moths.

An inspection of fifty azaleas plants, received a few days ago by the Englemann greenhouses from Ghent, Belgium, was made yesterday by Leonard Haseman, Ph. D., head of the entomology department of the University of Missouri at Columbia, to determine if the plants contained any gypsy or brown tail moths or other plant pests. None were found.

All plants received in this country from foreign lands must be inspected by officers of the state into which they are destined, that plant diseases and pests may be kept from getting a start or spreading. The Engelmann plants left Belgium before the German invasion. None of the moth pests have been found in Missouri for several years, according to Prof. Haseman. A few were discovered in the state in 1906 but they were soon exterminated.

More Azalea plants are shipped into this country, especially near Christmas time, than all other foreign varieties, according to Prof. Haseman. More than one-half million azalea plants have been inspected by Prof. Haseman and his assistants within the last year. The azalea, which grows in the form of a small bush, is forced into bloom by florists towards Christmas time and during the winter season and the plants sold for house decorations.

Few have heretofore been received in Maryville or vicinity. It is believed by florists here that the azalea will sell well here this winter.

SIMPLE BUT SURE

Hyomei the Great Catarrh Remedy—"Just Breathe It" and Be Cured.

Do not try to cure catarrh, head colds, or snuffles by taking drugs. These common but dangerous ailments that often cause the loss of hearing cannot be cured that way. The common sense method is to breathe Hyomei, which gets the medication right where it is needed to heal the raw and inflamed lining of the air passages.

Hyomei is a mixture of antiseptic oils—you breathe it—no bother; no disagreeable medicine; simply use the inhaler a few times daily and this health-giving medication will quickly soothe and heal the irritated tissues, stop distressing, choking and unclean discharges—you breathe freely—dull headaches cease, and every catarrhal symptom soon vanishes.

There is nothing more simple and safe to use, or that gives such rapid and lasting benefit as Hyomei—and the Orear-Henry Drug company sells it on the "no-cure-no-pay" plan.

Strong Resemblance.

An elderly gentleman went into a photographic studio and asked to see the proofs of a picture recently taken of a young man whose name he gave. They were handed to him as a matter of course, and he examined them critically. He seemed pleased and finally said:

"These are of my son. This one is a remarkably good photo of him; it is very like him indeed. Has he paid you for it yet?"

"No, sir," said the photographer, "not yet."

"Ah," said the elderly gentleman, "very, very much like him indeed."—Exchange.

SMYRNA INCIDENT NOT YET EXPLAINED

Wilson Confers With Daniels and Lansing on Situation.

Washington, Nov. 20.—President Wilson conferred with Secretary Daniels of the navy department and Acting Secretary Lansing of the state department on the situation produced by the firing by Turkish land forces on the launch of the American cruiser Tennessee at Smyrna, Asia Minor.

The president summoned the two secretaries to learn if there had been any word from Turkey shedding light on the reasons for the firing, but found that neither the cables nor the wireless had yielded a syllable of information. The European war has practicly paralyzed cable communication to Asia Minor and such messages as are received come by roundabout routes about five days late.

If there is continued delay it is probable that the American government will ask the British admiralty for the courtesy of its wireless in the Mediterranean to reach the American ships.

The president and his cabinet are assuming that the shots fired at the American launch were merely a friendly warning giving the customary notice that the port was mined and closed. Even if the shots were fired with hostile intent, the Washington government believes the Ottoman government would render an apology promptly for unauthorized acts of subordinate officials.

GERMAN OFFICAL REPORT

Berlin Announcement Hints at More Victories In Russian Poland.

Berlin, Nov. 20.—A German official communication says:

"The situation in West Flanders and in the north of France is unchanged. A German aviation squadron encountered some of the enemy's aviators while making a reconnoitering flight and caused them to descend, one of them falling. One of our flying machines is missing. A fierce French attack in the region of Servon on the western slopes of the Argonne forest, was repulsed with heavy loss to the enemy. Our losses were small. In the eastern theater of the war the newly commenced battles are proceeding."

Included in the information given out to the press at Berlin is the following:

"Reasons of strategy prevent the disclosure of military movements in the east, yet the official reports that operations are progressing favorably indicate that the victory of Wloclawek is being followed up.

"In view of the condition of the roads behind the Russians and the difficulties of a retirement on them, it seems probably that they will stand against the German attack which judging from the existing situation probably will be frontal and against their right wing.

"An official report given out in Vienna says that the German victory near Kutno has had an excellent effect upon the forces in Galicia, who have taken some advanced positions of the enemy in the Cracow region."

Austrians Capture 7,000 Russians.

London, Nov. 20.—A dispatch from Vienna gives the following official statement: "The battle in Russian Poland progresses favorably. Our troops have captured 7,000 prisoners, eighteen machine guns and several field guns."

Terrible Losses of Germans.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Foreign office dispatches to the French embassy here referred to great loss of life inflicted on the enemy by the allied troops.

GERMANS TRY TO CRUSH RUSSIANS

Teutons Seek to Overwhelm Enemy Between Rivers.

RUSH MEN AND GUNS TO ZONE

Czar's Advance Guard, Composed Largely of Cavalry, Is Compelled to Fall Back—Artillery Duel In Flanders and France—Naval Battle.

WAR SUMMARY

Petrograd has admitted a big reverse in Poland—a reverse in which the Russian armies have been pushed back at least fifty miles from the German border toward Warsaw.

"Particularly Quiet" is the description of the operations in the western zone given out by the French war office, although the usual artillery duels and attacks by infantry at various places were in progress.

A battle has taken place off Sebastopol in the Black sea between Russian and Turkish warships. As to its results the reports are contradictory.

The British have been successful again in an attack on a Turkish position. The force operating on the Shat El-Arab river and the Persian gulf drove from their trenches an Ottoman force and captured a number of prisoners, guns and a quantity of ammunition.

London, Nov. 20.—It is believed the result of the battle between the Russians and Germans between the Vistula and Warta rivers in Poland will have a very marked effect on the operations elsewhere and on the duration of the war.

All that is definitely known is that the Russian advance guard, consisting largely of cavalry, which advanced right onto the German frontier after the battle at Warsaw, met superior forces of the enemy and has been compelled to fall back more than half the distance covered in the advance.

The Germans are sending very strong forces of men and guns into the country between the two rivers, where the battle must be fought, hoping that in this confined area the Russians will not be able to deploy their enormous forces to advantage as they have done in practically all the previous battles.

Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander in chief, however, can choose his own ground for the battle, and it is probable he will select it as far away from the German lines of communication as he can. In Galicia before Cracow and in East Prussia, the Russians are pushing their advantage, apparently disregarding the fact that their center has been compelled to fall back.

Activity In Carpathians.

They are also showing much activity in the Carpathians, their object being to prevent the Austrians from retiring into Hungary. In fact, it is stated that they have already cut off 800,000 Austrians, who will be compelled, if defeated, to retreat westward.

In Flanders and France the battle which has been going on for thirty-five days has again developed into an artillery duel and infantry attacks, which formerly were so frequent, have decreased. This doubtless is due to the inability of the infantry on either side to operate successfully over the muddy ground and also because of the extended area which the allies have flooded between the coast and Dixmude.

While they are moving men eastward to oppose the Russians the Germans are reported to be bringing more big guns to the western front, having determined to carry out a big gun bombardment of the allies' entrenchments.

Meet In Long Distance Duel.

Russian and Turkish squadrons have met in a long distance duel off Sebastopol and both claim to have had the better of the encounter. According to the Russian report the former German cruiser Goeben, now attached to the Turkish navy, was damaged, while the Turks assert that a Russian battleship suffered severely and that the other Russian warships were compelled to retire.

It is reported from Vienna that Belgrade has been called upon to surrender. This city, the capital of Servia was under bombardment for weeks and was relieved only when the first Russian advance in Galicia compelled the Austrians to look after their northern frontiers. Now the Servians, like the Monenegrins, are back in their own country, and the Austrians, unmindful of the second invasion of their northern provinces, are endeavoring to destroy the two little armies.

They Fight by Boats.

Bruges, Belgium, Nov. 20.—Fighting between the German and allied forces in the inundated territory between Dixmude and Nieuport on the North sea coast is now frequently being carried on in boats. Artillery for the first time in the war proved ineffective.

Elliott Heads New Haven.

New York, Nov. 20.—Howard Elliott was elected president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company at a meeting of the road's directors. A. S. May was elected treasurer and A. E. Clark, secretary.

BIG EXPORT GAIN

U. S. SHIPMENTS FOR OCTOBER WERE WORTH $83,000,000.

SHIP MUCH MORE FOOD

Breadstuffs Alone Exceed That of October, 1913, by $25,000,000—Seizures Fail to Decrease Totals.

Europe's cry for food is being answered by the United States. Exports of breadstuffs in October of this year amounted to $38,247,570, according to statistics made public by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, an increase of nearly $25,000,000 over figures for October, 1913.

Exports of fresh beef also more than doubled during the month, figures this year being $83,940, as against $36,863 in October, 1913.

In spite of the tremendous increase in food shipments, exports as a whole did not measure up to last year's figures. The total for the month, as recorded at the ten chief ports of the United States, amounted to $83,513,466, as against $147,833,016 the previous year.

Exceed Imports Three Times.

For the week ending November 14, exports at these ports totaled $47,587,330, and officials of the commerce bureau see in that record a continuance of the marked improvement in American export trade already noted this month and upon which the feeling of confidence in the bright future opening before American industries is based. The districts selected handled nearly 80 per cent of the nation's export trade, and the tabulation shows that the balance in favor of this country on international trade school stood last Saturday at $32,392,214 for the first half of November. Imports last week totaled $25,710,988.

So great has been the European demand for breadstuffs that wheat, corn, barley, oats and flour are going across the Atlantic from every port in the United States. Huge shipments have been made from San Francisco via the Panama canal. The total export business in breadstuffs for the ten months ending with October this year was $204,216,478, as against $170,220,519 for the like period of 1913.

The greatest single increase in the October export among the breadstuffs was in wheat, which rose from 7,000,000 bushels in 1913 to 19,000,000 bushels in 1914. Exports of oats jumped from $23,640 to $9,322,155, while corn shipments increased from $274,285 to $853,812.

Oil Exports Increase.

Export trade in mineral oils showed a marked decline last October, probably because of the seizure of many oil laden ships by the British cruisers, on the ground that shipments bound for neutral countries, such as Italy and Holland, actually were destined for the use of the German army. Oil exports last month totaled $11,975,856, while the October figures for 1913 were $15,853,990.

A feature of the exports of oils is that despite a tremendous decrease last October in cargoes of illuminating and lubricating oils, gasoline, naptha and other fuel oils were shipped in larger quantities than in 1913. Fuel oil, exclusive of gasoline and naptha, was shipped to the extent of over 64,000,000 gallons last month, while October figures for 1913 were 47,500,000.

Cotton exports for October, 1914, were valued at $20,420,043, as against $107,375,197 in October, 1913. The decrease for the ten-month period in cotton shipments alone between 1913 and 1914 amounted to $127,180,748.

REPORT CASES OF BLACKLEG

State Experts Hear Missouri Cattle Suffer From Disease—Gives the Symptoms.

The Missouri state board of agriculture, and State Veterinarian, Dr. D. F. Luckey, at Columbia are receiving messages and letters concerning outbreaks of blackleg in young cattle, indicative that the disease appears to be more prevalent than it has been for a number of years.

"The symptoms of blackleg are very easily recognized by anyone who has ever seen a case," says Dr. Luckey. "As a rule, the disease appears in a lot of young cattle when on good feed or pasture and making rapid growth, as a rule, it affects the fattest calves in the lot. It runs a very rapid course, lasting as a rule, from twelve to twenty-four hours and almost invariably results in death. The calf first shows lameness. Within a few hours, a swelling appears on some part of the body and generally on one side of the quarters. Rubbing the swelling causes a crackling sound beneath the skin. When the animal is skinned, the affected portion appears bruised as if it had been hit with a club. These symptoms are unmistakable.

"The carcasses of blackleg ca ves should be thoroughly burned in order to destroy infection and prevent the spread of the disease. If these carcasses are not burned, the infection will remain on the premises for years and make cattle growing unprofitable unless all young cattle are regularly vaccinated.

"Whenever there is an outbreak of blackleg, all the young cattle in the community should be vaccinated. In the event that a case is lost in a herd, and a little time would be required to secure the vaccine, it is advisable to reduce the feed so that they will shrink slightly. They are not so apt to develop blackleg while shrinking as while gaining in weight. Three days after the vaccine is administered, they may be put back on full feed or good pasture."

Return to Girard.

Judge and Mrs. O. B. Metcalf of Girard, Ill., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eversole for the past two weeks, left this morning for their home.

Visit Cousins Here.

James Park and J. B. Miller of Camden Point left this morning for Pattonsburg, after visiting a day with their cousins, Mrs. Ella Shipps and Mrs. Katheryn Miller, Second and Buchanan streets. They have gone to Pattonsburg with the intention of buying a farm near there. If not suited, Mr. Park and Mr. Miller may look over farm land in this county with a view to buying.

Home from Hopkins.

Mrs. D. N. Scott and her guest, Mrs. Katherine Veeder of New Windsor, Ill., returned this morning from Hopkins, where they spent a few days visiting Mrs. Scott's brother, J. G. Rusk, and family.

For Interocean Highway.

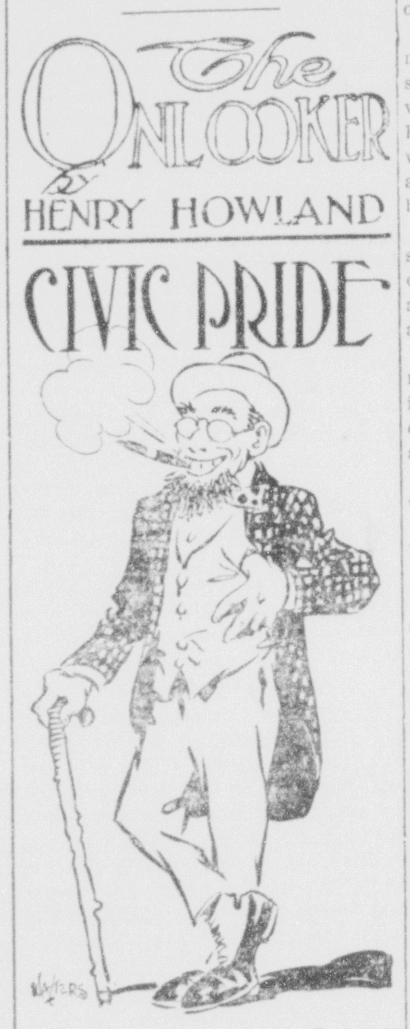
According to information by Frank Travis of Tarkio, who was in Burlington Junction this week, a strong effort is being made to bring the Interocean highway through Maryville, Burlington Junction and Tarkio. If present plans are carried out a large delegation will go over the proposed route next Tuesday, accompanied by State Highway Engineer Buffum and a Mr. Adams of Chillicothe, who is an official of the route. The Interocean route would bring a great deal of travel through here, and it behooves the men east and west of town on the proposed route to have their roads in "apple pie" order by Tuesday. Right after this light snow would be a fine time to take the kinks out of the roads.—Burlington Junction Post.



We've made gains at Pumpkin Center, as the census figures show;
We have twice the population that we had ten years ago;
We have outstripped Cherry Valley and left Podunk in the rear;
We are catchin' up with Bingtown and are crowding Rensaleer;
By annexin' all our suburbs we have made a mighty stride,
So you'll see it ain't no wonder we are full of civic pride.

Yes, our grafters keep on graftin' in the same old busy way;
There's another scandal started nearly every other day;
Can't, somehow, persuade the voters that it wouldn't be a crime
To quit votin' the same tickets that their dads did in their time;
Got a council full of rascals; gettin' robbed on every side,
But we've gained in population and are full of civic pride.

There is rubbish in our alleys and the air is full of smoke;
We've a waterworks department, but it's got to be a joke;
There is graftin' in the courthouse, likewise in the city hall;
The streets are full of mudholes and get no repairs at all;
We're in debt and gettin' deeper so the crooks can be supplied,
But we've outstripped Cherry Valley and are full of civic pride.

We should have another schoolhouse—issued bonds a year ago;
It appears the grafters somehow gobbled up the money, though;
We've a law forbiddin' gamblin', but the gamblers never mind,
And the town looks like the dickens, but we've left Podunk behind;
We are catchin' up with Bingtown; we've spread out on every side,
So you'll see it ain't no wonder we are full of civic pride.

A Cure.

"Yes, sir, I was totally cured of a serious case of dyspepsia during my vacation."

"Fine! Exercising daily and sleeping in the open air was what did it, I suppose?"

"No. I couldn't eat any of the stuff they put on the table at the place where I spent my two weeks, and the rest was what my stomach seemed to need."

MAKES VISIT; DROPS DEAD

Mrs. Henderson Dies at Home of Son in Barnard.

Mrs. Ida Henderson, aged 61, of Savannah, who was visiting her son, Charles Henderson of Barnard, dropped dead last night while walking from town to her son's home.

Mrs. Henderson, in company with her son and his wife, had attended an entertainment at Barnard. About 12 o'clock they started to walk to their home, which was a short distance away. A few moments after starting Mrs. Henderson was taken with a fainting spell and died in a few moments. She had been a sufferer with heart disease and asthma for some time. The body will be taken to Savannah, where the funeral services will be held Sunday. She leaves two sons, Charles, of Barnard, and Fred Henderson of Guilford, one daughter, Mrs. Jessie Morgan of Savannah, and seven other daughters residing in Kansas City, Colorado and Texas.

MISS HOBBS PLEASES AUDIENCES.

Evening Crowd at Bazaar Exceeds Day —Dinner Repeats Success.

Miss Helen Hobbs, reader, who gave the principal part of the program at the First Methodist church bazaar last night pleased a large audience. Nor was it hard to understand why, for Miss Hobbs has a great charm of personality and is unsurpassed in her particular art. Her selections were varied and selected so that each appealed to her listeners.

Miss Hobbs' first number was a short sketch by Josephine Daskam-Bacon, then followed a selection from James Whitcomb Riley, "The Melting Pot," by Zangwill, "The House Beside the Road," by Foss, and a number of others.

The readings were interspersed by musical numbers which were two solos, Schubert's "Serenade" and Nevin's "Deep in the Rose's Glowing Heart," by the Rev. G. S. Cox, with violin obligato by Miss Edith Wilson, and a duet, "The Day is Done," Lohr, by Miss Nellie Wray and Mr. Cox.

Nearly two hundred people were served at supper and the hours preceding, and after the entertainment a crowd attended the fancy sale booths and visited the tea room.

A roast chicken dinner was served at noon today, the number attending being fully as large as yesterday, when over 250 were served. This evening an oyster supper will be served.

TO GIVE "SQUARE DEAL" TALK.

Frank Dixon, Lyceum Lecturer, Speaks Tonight—Pay for Course.

"The Square Deal" will be the topic of Frank Dixon, lyceum and Chautauqua lecturer, in the First Christian church tonight in the second number of the Maryville lyceum course. The lecture relates to the business world, and is considered one of the best of Dixon's many able lectures.

In this chosen lecture Mr. Dixon expresses his belief that the administration of justice should be lifted above the level of financial influence, that business should be taken out of politics, and that taxation should be placed on the shoulders of those more able to bear it, or at least placed equally. Then he explains why he believes these things.

The next lyceum number will be on November 30, when the Frank Lea Short players come here.

Prof. G. H. Colbert, one of the directors of the association, said this afternoon that the sale of season tickets had so far paid for the entire course of seven numbers. The sales of separate number tickets heretofore probably will insure a small fund for the association to begin next year's course, he said.

MEN'S CLUB GETS BUSY.

Conduct Sunday Night Service—Will Manage Church Advertising.

The Men's club of the First Baptist church will have charge of the services Sunday night. A number of the members will give three-minute talks on "The Meaning of Christ in a Man's Life." The plan of conducting the service was decided upon at a meeting of the club held last night.

A systematic campaign of church advertising was discussed and a talk relative to this work was made by Edward Brewer, foreman of The Democrat-Forum job office and a club member. A number of plans along this line were spoken of and will be put into effect later.

To Give Entertainment.

The Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, Miss Anice Ingerson and Miss Edith Wilson of this city, and Helen Hobbs, dramatic reader and impersonator, will give an entertainment tonight in the Methodist church at Burlington Junction.

Live Stock Marketers.

The following Nodaway county farmers marketed live stock on the St. Joseph market yesterday: J. W. Milbank, W. Reece, William Conlin, Roscoe & Eaton, H. S. Medsker, Ramey & Co., J. Blagg, Samuel Corrough, T. Cooper, J. B. Nunnelley and V. Fakes.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

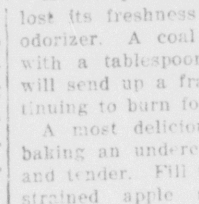
'Tis better to be skilled in making salad,
Than versifying sweetest song or ballad,
For man, 'tis said, is but a hungry sinner,
Devoid of sentiment 'till after dinner.
So, if the way you'd find unto his heart
Essay not verse, but culinary art.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

How many housekeepers appreciate the value of boric acid? A half teaspoonful of the powder dissolved in a pint of water is a most desirable disinfectant to wash the baby's mouth, and also its eyes. Each bit of absorbent cotton should be burned after using, and a fresh piece should be used for each eye. Buy a fourth of a pound of the powder and keep it in an air-tight box. Two ounces of the acid to a quart of boiled water can be bottled and kept for use in different ways. If a burn has to be treated, saturate a cloth in the solution and keep it wet. This will take out the fire. It is a good disinfectant for any cut or wound.



A small pressing board may be made of the smooth boards used to roll dress goods. Pad it with a piece of an old comforter or blanket and keep it for ironing small things when a larger board is not needed.

A simple dessert and one which is most wholesome is a graham mush made by adding enough graham flour to a quart of boiling water with salt, stirring until a smooth mush is made. Add a few raisins and serve with sugar and cream, either hot or molded in cups and served cold.

Heliotrope sachet powder which has lost its freshness makes a good deodorizer. A coal dropped in a cup with a tablespoonful of the powder will send up a fragrant incense, continuing to burn for some time.

A most delicious pie is made by baking an undercrust, having it rich and tender. Fill the crust with well strained apple sauce mixed with whipped cream, sugar and flavored with nutmeg.

A rocking chair should never be allowed in a sick room except for the use of the patient. Some one has said that there should be one chair in a sick room, and that so uncomfortable that visitors will not linger long in it.

If all use sugar on oatmeal, try adding it when cooking and see how much the oatmeal is improved thereby.

Nellie Maxwell.

SHE WAS SORRY.

"I am so sorry," she said when they had wandered far from the maddening throng and he had endeavored several times to kiss her, "that we never came out here before."

"Are you?" he asked, with a glad note of eagerness in his tone.

"Yes. Because if we had I'd be somewhere else now."

Since They Have Met.

HE.

Before you came I could not see
How good the world was and how fair;
Before you came to smile on me
I often battled with despair;
I did not know before we met
How many charms the world contained—
That one could be without regret
And whistle even when it rained.

SHE.

Before we met I never knew
How fine a place the world could be,
Before I sat across from you
My appetite brought woe to me;
I did not, ere we chanced to meet
And ere you taught me not to care,
Know what a treat it was to eat
All that was on the bill of fare.

His Head.

"I had my head examined by a phrenologist last week."

"Well, then there is at least one phrenologist who understands what is meant by empty nothingness."

Poor Alfred.

"What are you worrying about?"

"I'm afraid the year that's beginning isn't going to be much of a year for me. Here I am without even $10 in my pocket and in danger of losing my job."

"Or, come, cheer up. Things might be a good deal worse. Think of poor Alfred Vanderbilt. He's got to pay $40,000 for a flat this year."

Success.

"The secret of success," says Andrew Carnegie, "lies not in doing your work, but in recognizing the right man to do it."

Think of the splendid success Thomas Gray might have achieved if he had picked out some good man to write the "Elegy in a Country Churchyard."

Failure.

He cheated, he schemed and he lied,
He wronged the best friend that he had;
He thrust all his manhood aside,
And profits alone made him glad.

He cheated, he schemed and he stole,
He took what his brothers had earned;
He stifled the cries of his soul,
From all that was noble he turned.

He cheated and schemed and he won
The wealth he had longed to possess;
But he learned, when his scheming was done,
That the fates had denied him success.
